ABOUT ALBA

25 years since its establishment, Alba Graduate Business School, has had a deep impact on the business education landscape in Greece. Born to address the pressing needs for professional management skills, Alba strives for excellence, quality and continuous innovation in research and teaching.

Alba is accredited by The New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE), the most prestigious accrediting organization in the United States. Moreover, all Alba MBA programs are accredited from the Association of MBAs (AMBA), while both the MSc in Finance and the MSc in Strategic HRM programs are EPAS (EFMD Programme Accreditation System) accredited.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF GREECE

The American College of Greece (ACG) is a private, independent, non-profit educational institution founded in 1875. Throughout its history, ACG has been recognized as Greece's premier non-profit College and it is the oldest and largest American educational institution in Europe. It comprises three divisions: Pierce (secondary education), Deree (undergraduate and graduate programs) and Alba Graduate Business School (graduate programs).

Deree is accredited by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE) and has a degree validation agreement with the Open University, UK. Over 3,500 students from 72 countries currently study at Deree, while ACG boasts an alumni body of 54,000 members around the world.

A SCHOOL WITH AN INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION

Alba resident and visiting professors come from several countries blending in Alba programs global management perspectives, insights and experience.
