4. Leadership Experience

2010-2014 Associate Dean, Academic Programmes, ALBA Graduate Business School

Appointed by the Board of Directors with P&L responsibility, including Marketing & Communications, with a mandate to share ownership of the urgent turnaround of the School. Responsible for 3.5m Euro annual revenue, over 500 students and an annual new intake of 250. Responsible for international accreditations; led the design and development of 9 new post-graduate degree programmes (to a total of 14), including a joint Masters with Henley Business School. Led the development of real-time performance monitoring and data-driven decision making systems and processes, including new KPIs across all areas, financial, marketing, enrolment, resource planning. Direct and indirect reports: 9-14.

2009-2014 Academic Director, MBA Programmes, ALBA Graduate Business School

Redesigned, repositioned and relaunched the MBA portfolio, with a merged Full-Time and Part-Time Curriculum, plus a new C-level EMBA. Over 120 students in total. Led the introduction of several innovations (e.g. ERP Simulation, Creativity, Marketing Engineering), including a new double capstone course titled “Management Acts: A Theatrical Integration” (2013), which won the 2016 AMBA Innovation Award.

2007-2009 Associate Dean for Innovation & Technology, ALBA Graduate Business School

Coordinated strategy and efforts for external funding and research support for an aggregate budget over 5m€. Provided strategic direction and leadership for all technology investments in administration and teaching & learning.

2000-2007 Academic Director, Applied Research and Innovation Projects (ARIP), ALBA

Led all efforts for external (mainly EU) research funding. Led or facilitated greenfield initiatives in applied R&D in collaboration with the business community, such as the Recruitment Confidence Index, the Best Workplaces competition, and the guide for young entrepreneurs.

2000-2007 Academic Director, Information Technology, ALBA Graduate Business School

Oversaw the specification, procurement, design, deployment and exploitation of all IT projects for the renewal and expansion of the entire information systems infrastructure of the School. In almost all cases, this involved taking a leading role in redesigning processes and redefining business rules.
