

Merit-based Scholarships

Office of Financial Assistance and Planning

Alba Graduate Business School, The American College of Greece, aims to attract the highest quality of graduate applicants, regardless of their ability to finance their education. Merit Scholarships are awarded on the basis of:

- Academic performance
- Candidate's overall profile.

Academic Performance

The following table indicates the percentage of tuition waiver you may be entitled to, on the basis of your previous degree(s) Grade Point Average (GPA):

UK	US	Greek AEI - GPA	Scholarship (% of Tuition)
70+ first	3.60+	8,01+	20%
66-69 (2:1 high)	3.31-3.59	7,51-8,00	15%
61-65 (2:1)	3.00-3.30	7,01-7,50	10%

Candidate's Overall Profile

Additional criteria including, but not limited to, work experience, advanced degrees, professional qualifications and interview performance, may increase the total tuition waiver up to 30%

Students awarded a merit scholarship are required to maintain strong academic performance and comply with all College regulations, including the Student Conduct Code.
